TO RRS FAMILIES

Hard to believe it is already the last weekend of September! How are we through the first month of school already?

Picture Day & Photo Consent: Picture Day was a huge success—so many beautiful smiles! Proofs should be home by now. Retake day is scheduled for October 29th (please let your child's teacher know if you'd like retakes). Also, if you haven't submitted your photo/yearbook consent forms yet, please send those in ASAP so everyone is included!

Safety First: We practiced another safety drill this past week (a Hold and Secure). Student safety is always our top priority. As a gentle reminder, all adults must check in at the main office upon arrival rather than heading directly to classrooms.

Jr. High Dance: Our 1st Jr. High dance was an absolute blast! The giant dance circle was full of students busting out the worm, the robot, and the sprinkler (okay... maybe the sprinkler was Ms. Frost! 😊). Thank you for supporting these events—every bit goes right back into supporting our school initiatives!

Orange Shirt Day & Truth and Reconciliation: A reminder that Tuesday is Orange Shirt Day, and Wednesday schools are closed to observe the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. If you are looking for a meaningful family activity, visiting the Mi'kmaw petroglyphs at the Bedford Barrens is a wonderful outdoor way to reflect on reconciliation, learn together, and appreciate the land we live on.

Have a wonderful weekend! If you ever have any questions, concerns, or thoughts, we are always here to support you and your student.
